

Water Resources Advisory Board Concept

Advisory Group Purpose and Work Scope

SSWAB

WRAB

Review and provide input on...

- Stormwater Utility Rates
- Capital Improvement Program
- Stormwater Master Plans
- Stormwater Utility – Related Outreach

Research, report and advise on emerging topic areas:

- Shoreline Master Program (i.e. aquaculture, ongoing monitoring plan)
- Water bank development for agriculture and conservation subdivisions
- Water-related climate resiliency measures
- Stormwater policy development

Membership

Topic area professionals

At least five members with backgrounds in water resources (i.e. hydrogeology, stormwater planning, water law, env. engineering)

Shoreline owners

At least two members with property regulated under Shoreline Master Program

Business

At least two members with water-dependent business interests (i.e. aquaculture, forestry, fish farming)

Ad hoc

Additional topic area experts / stakeholders invited as needed

Logistics

Meeting Frequency

Every other month + topic area subcommittee(s)

Staffing Support

Andrew Deffobis – Lead
Corey Bennett – General
WRAB Support
Topic area water resources
& public works staff

Board Interaction

Annual briefing + participation at topic area work session(s)

Upcoming 2024 Topics

Shoreline Master Program

Learn about SMP update and begin scoping monitoring plan and aquaculture research parameters

Stormwater Comprehensive Study

Review draft and provide feedback to Public Works team

Comprehensive Plan Water Policies

Engage in work session with CPED team to refine draft for Planning Commission review