#1 - Thurston County Board of County Commissioners Proclaimed the Month of February as Black History Month

Thurston County Public Health and Social Services Developmental Disabilities program contracts with local providers to serve individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Thurston and Mason Counties. Programs include supported employment, job foundation for students ages 19 to 20, and School-to-Work (STW) for students ages 20 to 21. The main goal for School-to-Work is to bridge the gap between a student graduating high school and being employed in an integrated setting. This video gives an overview of the STW program through the eyes of the graduates and their families, detailing the steps they took from high school to earning their first job.
