

Built Prior to a Permit or Without an Inspection Table

Permit Status	Construction Status	Design Professional Certification – Verification forms available at www.thurstoncountybdc.com	County Inspector
No Permit. Apply for building permit to comply with current building codes and development standards	Partially available for inspection.	Determines the conceal work meets code. Investigation completed to the satisfaction of the professional for compliance to code. May require the assistance of other professionals to determine energy code, electrical, and plumbing code requirements.	County completes the inspection process of exposed work.
No Permit. Apply for permit to comply with current building codes and development standards	Uninspected work is concealed.	Determines the conceal work meets code. Investigation completed to the satisfaction of the professional for compliance to code. May require the assistance of other professionals to determine energy code, electrical, and plumbing code requirements.	Design professional completes inspection work.
Permitted. Project expired without inspections completed by County	Partially available for inspection.	Determines the conceal work meets code. Investigation completed to the satisfaction of the professional for compliance to code. May require the assistance of other professionals to determine energy code, electrical, and plumbing code requirements.	County completes the inspection process of exposed work
Permitted. Project expired without inspections completed by County.	Uninspected work is concealed.	Determines conceal work meets code. Investigation completed to the satisfaction of the professional for compliance to code. May require the assistance of other professionals to determine energy code, electrical, and plumbing code requirements.	County completes final inspection only.
Permit expired within the last three years and all inspections completed except FINAL. Submit building permit application for final inspection only.	All concealed work inspected by County	None	County completes final inspection.

Built Prior to a Permit or Without an Inspection Table

Permit Status	Construction Status	Design Professional Certification – Verification forms available at www.thurstoncountybdc.com	County Inspector
Permit expired within the last three years Submit building permit application for final inspection only	Uninspected work is concealed.	Determines conceal work meets code. Investigation to be completed to the satisfaction of the professional for compliance to code. May require the assistance of other professionals to determine energy code, electrical, and plumbing code requirement.	County completes the inspection process of exposed work.
Permit expired more than three years Submit building permit application	Some work inspected by County	Determines remaining work complies with code enforced at the time the building application was originally submitted. Investigation completed to the satisfaction of the professional for compliance to code. May require the assistance of other professionals to determine energy code, electrical, and plumbing code requirements.	Design professional completes inspection work and submits verification documentation.