6.10 Promotional Examinations: Except for classes in which there are provisions for both open competitive testing and promotional testing, vacancies in a classification requiring a period of service within a job family must be filled through promotional examination. When a class has provisions for both open competitive testing and promotional testing, the Chief Examiner may select either promotional testing alone, or a combination of promotional and open competitive testing. When it is determined that there will be a promotional examination, the Chief Examiner shall:

- A. Establish, in addition to other eligibility requirements, the required minimum period of service in the lower classification or classifications, which shall not be less than one year;
- B. Set the minimum score required to advance in each phase of a multi-phased examination process if a minimum score will be required;
- C. May set a maximum number of applicants that may advance at the completion of each phase of a multi-phased examination process, if appropriate.

 - 2. A preliminary ranking examination may be waived by the Chief Examiner when the number of applications received at the deadline for filing applications is equal to or less than the number approved to advance from a preliminary ranking examination.

- 6.11 Qualified as Eligible for Promotion: Applicants that successfully complete an assessment center examination or other type of final examination phase and are determined to be qualified as eligible for promotion will be ranked on the appropriate promotional eligibility list.
- 6.12 Time Interval: Any person who is removed from an eligibility list under Rule 7.3, 7.4 E, 7.4 F, or 7.4 G shall not be eligible to compete in another examination within six (6) months of the date of removal from that eligibility list unless restored to the eligibility list under the provisions of Rule 7.5 or otherwise authorized by the Commission.

- 6.14 Re-use of Existing Standardized Written Examination Score: Passing scores on a standardized, written exam may be used by candidates in subsequent examination processes for the same classification for up to one year after initial exam; provided that the Chief Examiner determines the written examination is the same or substantially similar. Candidates must inform the Chief Examiner of intent to use an existing score.
- 6.15 Establishment of Candidate Roster: The Chief Examiner may establish a candidate roster for any classification. Each candidate will remain on the candidate roster for one year from the date of their examination unless removed earlier by placement on the eligibility list for the classification, or rejected in accordance with Rule 5.8.

The names of applicants who meet the qualifications and receive passing scores on examinations shall be placed on the proper eligibility list in order of relative scores. When tie scores exist, persons shall occupy the same relative position. However, a new eligibility list may be established pursuant to Civil Service Rule 7.6. An eligibility list can only be extended once.
 - 1. Eligible persons not certified on expired eligibility lists are rendered no longer eligible when a list expires.

from the candidate roster to create an eligibility list. Candidates on a candidate roster may be merged with the current eligibility list if the same examination was used. When merging lists, each eligible shall be ranked based on their examination scores, and their position on the list may change as additional eligibles are added and removed from the list. Each eligible shall remain on the list for one year, unless removed in accordance with these rules.

7.3 Removal of Names by Commission: The Commission will remove a person's name from any eligibility list if evidence disclosed in the pre-hire interview, polygraph test, psychological examination, and/or background investigation establishes that the person is unfit for service.

This notice is intended to give the person an opportunity to hear the specific issue being presented to the Commission by the appointing authority in support of the removal request. It is not a hearing for the applicant, and it does not give the person any right to review records generated by the appointing authority. The person may address the Commission in writing or in person, but the restoration provisions of section 7.5 do not apply to removals under this section.
- B. The Commission shall review the applicant's background investigation file and shall hear from the Sheriff's representative and the Chief Examiner regarding the proposed removal.

2. Should such a person wish to protest the Chief Examiner's decision, he or she must so notify the Commission in writing within ten (10) working days of the notification of refusal to reinstate.
3. The Commission shall then review the file, affirm or reverse the Chief Examiner's action, and notify the person of its decision.

7.6 Use of New Examination: The Commission may choose, at its discretion, to employ a new examination for a particular class. If a new examination is used by the Commission, the Commission reserves the right to require eligible persons to take the new examination for the same class. Notice will be mailed a minimum of ten (10) days prior to the examination date to eligible persons informing them of the requirement that they retest for the same class. The Commission may then establish an entirely new eligibility list for that class, based on the results of the new examination.

- A. The Chief Examiner will assess the new examination to determine if it is substantially the same as the previously-used examination with regard to format, subject matter, duration, and the like. If the new examination is substantially the same, results from the new examination may be used along with results from the previously-used examination to establish eligibility lists for the particular classification being tested.
- B. If the Chief Examiner determines that the new examination is substantially different than the previously-used examination, any eligible previously ranked on the eligibility list for that class who fails to retest for the same class will be placed at the bottom of the new eligibility list for the remainder of the original eligibility period in their previously ranked order.

8. APPOINTMENTS

- 8.1 General Provisions: Vacancies in the classified service shall be filled by recall, promotional appointment, original appointment, or voluntary transfer. Whenever the appointing authority wishes to fill a vacancy, a requisition for an employee shall be submitted to the Chief Examiner on the prescribed form. The Chief Examiner will send an announcement of the transfer opportunity to all Sheriff's Office employees outlining the requirements to be considered and deadline for submitting a request for transfer. The deadline for submitting a request for transfer shall be at least ten (10) business days from the date of the Chief Examiner's announcement of the transfer opportunity.
