HOW TO PREPARE AND FILE FINAL ORDERS

CHECKLIST

Use the forms and instructions in this packet only if the following factors apply to your situation:

- ✓ You have filed for a divorce, legal separation or invalidity of marriage and there are no dependent children of this marriage;
- ✓ You and your spouse have reached an agreement on all issues;
- ✓ You are ready to complete the written final orders;

OR

You have attended a settlement conference or trial and are ready to enter the Judge's ruling on the written final orders.

(If you have dependent children of this marriage and you are ready to file final orders, you should not use this packet.

READ ME: It is very important for you to know that when you sign a court document, you may be helping or hurting your court case. Before you sign any court document or get involved with a court case, it is important that you carefully read the document to make sure you are doing the right thing. You may also want to contact a lawyer for legal advice and help with those issues you do not understand. If you need help with the forms, procedures and rules of the court, there is a Family Court Facilitator available to assist you.
