HOW TO SCHEDULE A HEARING

CHECKLIST

Use the forms and instructions in this packet only if the following factors apply to your situation:

- ✓ You have an active family law case in this court; and
- ✓ You have a motion for relief or entry of temporary orders that you need to schedule for a hearing before the court commissioner/judge;

OR

- ✓ You want to schedule your final hearing for a Legal Separation, Invalidity of Marriage, Dissolution of Marriage, or Nonparental Custody.

READ ME: It is very important for you to know that when you sign a court document, you may be helping or hurting your court case. Before you sign any court document or get involved with a court case, it is important that you carefully read the document to make sure you are doing the right thing. You may also want to contact a lawyer for legal advice and help with those issues you do not understand. If you need help with the forms, procedures and rules of the court, there is a Family Court Facilitator available to assist you.
