Washington State Narcan Mail Order

Naloxone is commonly called Narcan. Naloxone is a medication that may stop an opioid overdose. Any person at risk of having or seeing an opioid overdose may order naloxone for free. People living in Washington State can receive Naloxone in the mail by placing an order here.

This program is brought to you by The People's Harm Reduction Alliance. To learn more about PHRA and Naloxone, please visit http://phra.org/mail-order-naloxone

For KING COUNTY residents, order here: https://www.kelley-ross.com/polyclinic/II/
