

Healthy Homes and Garden Education

Free Partnership Opportunity with Thurston County Public Health

WHAT:

The Thurston County Public Health Education and Prevention Team wants to partner with you to provide your residents information on safer cleaning practices for a healthier living space.

Each resident who receives our information and takes a pledge to let us know how they plan to create a healthier home for themselves, their family, and our community, will receive a free safer cleaning kit with supplies worth over $40.

WHERE:

We will come to your housing complex and offer a free workshop for residents, or simply host a table of information with staff to answer questions, or join you for an event that you already have planned.

WHEN:

You choose the best date and time.

For more information or to schedule a free event,
