Under state law (RCW 36.70A.470), the purpose of the docketing process is to provide a way for interested parties to suggest Comprehensive Plan and development code amendments to the Board. It is also designed to make the public aware of proposed items that are under consideration.

It is the Board's discretion to place, or remove, any item on the official docket.

Note: All board briefings are open to the public.
Becoming an Amendment
Step 2: Planning Commission Review Process

Staff Review of Draft Amendments
Staff reviews draft code amendments, prepares a staff report, completes an initial legal review and develops alternatives.

Planning Commission Review
Planning Commission reviews preliminary draft amendments over the course of one or more meetings. After review, they set a public hearing with a 20-day notice.

Planning Commission Public Hearing
The public has the opportunity to give comments to the Planning Commission at the public hearing.

Recommendation to the Board
Planning Commission decides on the preliminary draft amendments. Their decision, along with a minority report (if available) is sent to the Board as a recommendation.

- State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA) Determination
- Commerce 60-Day Review
- Sent to Board to review

Proposed amendments are sent to the Department of Commerce for a 60-day review, except under special circumstances.

Note: All Planning Commission meetings are open to the public.
Board Reviews
Planning Commission
Recommendation
Board begins review process after it receives the recommendation from the Planning Commission.

Board Briefing
Staff provide all available recommendations and a summary of public comments received during the Planning Commission review process. The board will give staff feedback for desired changes and set the public hearing with a 20-day notice.

Public Hearing
Public comment is given at the hearing. Staff prepares a review of the comments for the board.

Board Briefing and Direction
Board reviews public comments and recommends any changes to proposed amendments. Board gives staff final direction to prepare amendments for adoption.

Develop Ordinance
Staff draft an ordinance with proposed amendments to development code or comprehensive plan. Requires legal review prior to adoption.

Board Decision
Staff submit ordinance for adoption at a regularly scheduled board meeting.

Notice of Adoption
Notice is published in the County’s newspaper of record. 60-day appeal period begins.

Note: All board briefings are open to the public.
