

LUNCHTIME EDUCATION

In the Year 2021

Thurston County Family and Juvenile Court and Thurston County Bar Association present free* training for legal, mental health, education and social services professionals working with court-involved children and families.

“Racial and Ethnic Disproportionality in Juvenile Detention in Washington State”

A presentation by Amanda Gilman, PhD

This session will focus on racial and ethnic disproportionality in juvenile detention. After a brief overview of national data, the bulk of the presentation will be devoted to discussions of local Washington data, both at the state and the county level. Dr. Gilman will also present findings from recent analyses regarding the effect of the COVID-19 public health crisis on juvenile detention admissions and the implications for disproportionality.

Tuesday, March 23, 2021

12:15 to 1:15 pm

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/7191500386>

* Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credit is free. This program has been approved for 1 Personal Development and Mental Health CLE credit. For more information on CLE approval, please contact the TCBA.

No pre-registration is required. Members of the public are welcome.