RE: Superior Court Calendar Changes – Civil Motions Friday morning

In response to the Covid-19 pandemic and to minimize the number of people in courtrooms during civil motions calendars, all judges hearing Friday morning civil calendars have been setting time-specific hearings in each case by issuing orders for each scheduled hearing. To date, these orders have designated the time for hearing and the type of technology (ZOOM or phone bridge) available for remote participation in the hearing.

Beginning Friday, October 8, 2021, Judges Amamilo, Murphy and Wilson will no longer issue case specific orders for every scheduled hearing on their civil motion and dispositive motion calendars. Instead, all participants in Friday morning hearings will be expected to appear at 9:00 a.m. The judge will determine the order of arguments at the outset of the calendar. Parties, lawyers, and the public may attend hearings using the ZOOM application or in person. Because of the pandemic, the court continues to encourage remote participation if possible. The ZOOM information listed below will allow remote participation in each judge's calendar. This information is also published on the court's website.

Until further notice, Judge Dixon will continue to issue orders regarding scheduled civil motions in each of his cases.

For all cases, Orders Regarding Scheduled Civil Motions in specific cases will take precedence over the general guidance in this memo.

Even though remote participation is authorized, all courtrooms remain open to the public during every hearing including those in which remote participation is available using Zoom.
